Down	Out of service; unavailable for production

Register Control

Retain the listed asset IDs on machine labels, setup records, job travelers and QF-021 maintenance records. Update this register when equipment is acquired, retired, relocated or changes status.

Job requirements and actual equipment capability govern suitability for the work. Record any required machine-specific limitations or settings in the job instructions. Measuring and inspection instruments are maintained separately in QF-028; QF-030 schedules their calibration.
